

DISTRIBUTION

Circulation and Readerhip:

- A quarterly print-run of 10,000 copies.

The Russian Investment Review continues to serve financial communities in London, Moscow, New York, Paris, Geneva and around the globe with specific information and hard-hitting analysis of Russia's development.

Published in Moscow and London, the Review has access to a comprehensive global database, giving it a highly-focused and extensively targeted circulation.

- Russian and Western CEOs and policy makers receive the magazine direct to their desk.
- In Russia, the Review is distributed at key business locations, including the VIP lounge of Domodedovo Airport, at 5* hotels throughout Moscow, including the Ararat Park Hyatt, Baltschug Kempinski and Marriot Hotels, and at an exhaustive schedule of conferences and other events.

With an exclusive focus on global business with Russia, the Russian Investment Review is a powerful and immediate means of delivering your message to anyone involved in business with Russia.
